Yana, I have
I often have a hard time for finding the words I
want to use to say what I felt. In a case like this where I know more people will read I will not even
try. But anyway I want to wish you lots of luck with all you do!

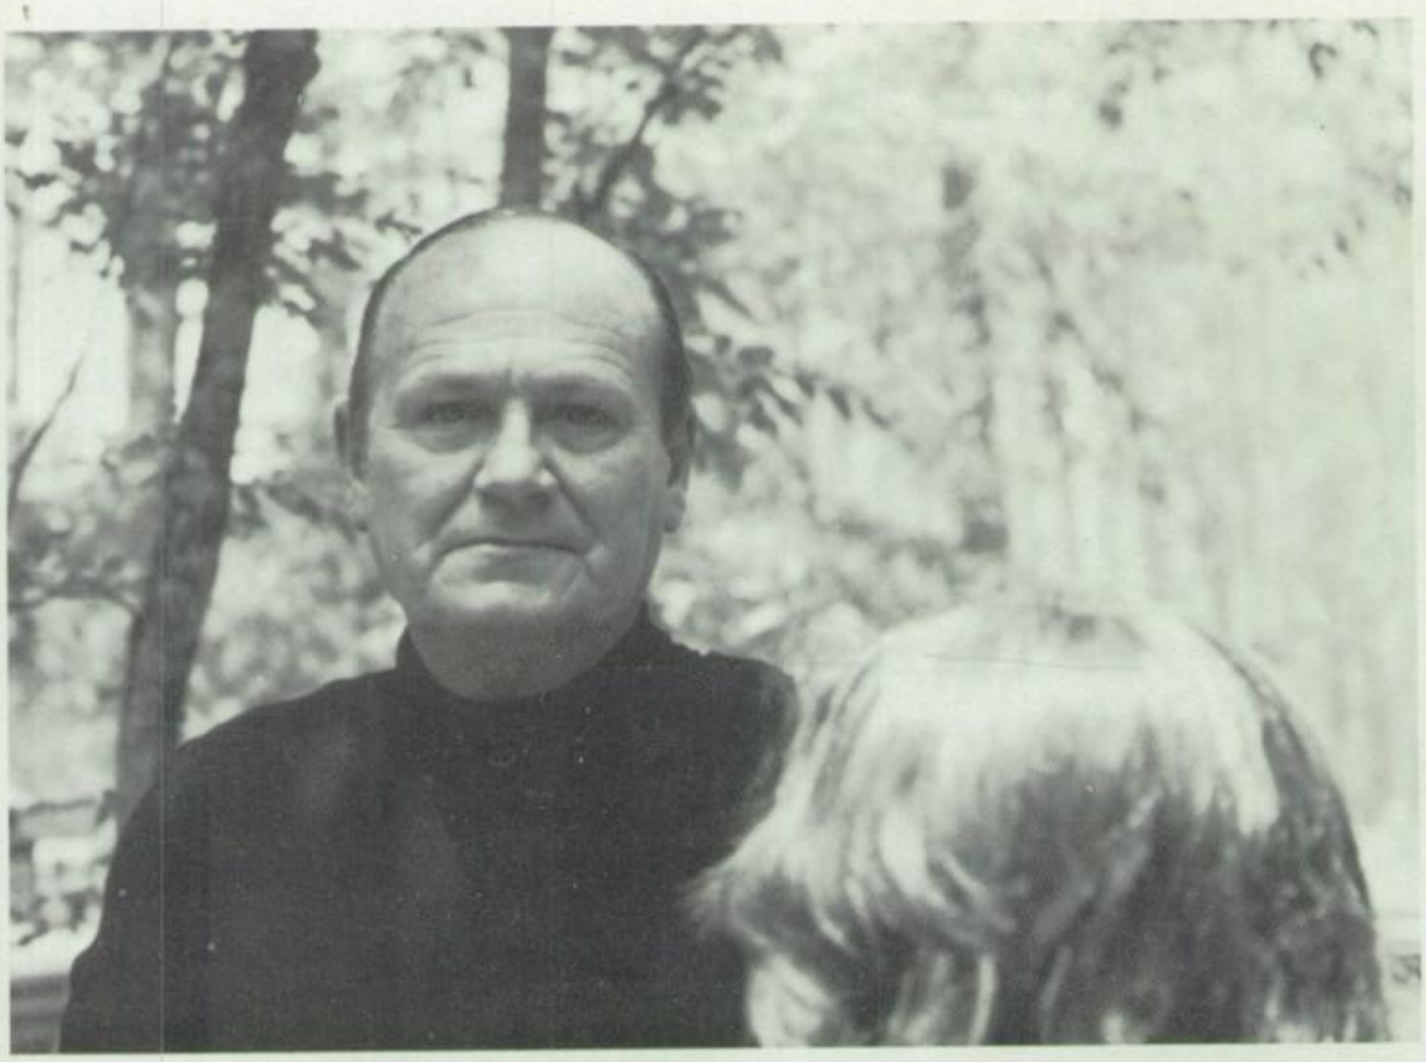
The year is 2001, and the last of the hostages are expected home for Christmas. World peace is expected once again. The 20th year reunion of the Charter Class of MHS is being held at the just completed MHS gym.

Gayle Byars, now a secretary to a rock group, is promoting their newest recording. Donald and Denise Allen are expecting their first child after 22 years of being married. Malcolm Humphrey and Susan Isbell, dressed in matching Western gear, are the proud owners of the HI Ranch. Malcolm owns it, and Susan manages it. Jimmy Baggett has just published book number 8: School Spirit: An Elusive Quality. Chuck Barber & Clarence Butler are the owners of the Fisherman's Paradise, a worm farm. Tracy Angrisano, wearing built up shoes, is the new Chief of Staff of Moody General Hospital where Tim Austin is Chief of the Paramedics. Randy Box and Randy Fisher are now the football coaches — one at MHS and the other at Moody Technological Institute. Barrett Pickett is the newly elected mayor of Acmar of which Moody is a suburb. Ben Tyner is the new sheriff. Jeff Gaines finally finished his book, started in Ms. Duncan's Freshman English Class. The book is a success. Few have finished the book of 5,000 pages. Warren Lovvorn, home from the Navy, has promised Barbara they'll definitely marry in 2001. Alisa and Jackie are the proud owners of Six Flags Over Moody, a used car lot. Gwenn Alldredge, having just made her 20th commercial for Adorn, has a pixie hair cut. Stanley Brasher expects the state championship at MHS with his wrestling team. Darryl Clevenger, the owner of the Flying C Air Service, flew all people from outside the state to the state. John Cochran owns the Real Wheel Pottery Shop at the Crossroads. Dawnita Holt, the Superintendent of Nurses at Moody General Hospital, is taking drama lessons on the side. She expects a lead role in the play at Moody's new coliseum. Debra Jolly and Joan Thomas hold key positions on the staff at Baptist Medical — Moody. Penny Palmer, Moody's new secretary, still checks out early to sell ads for the yearbook. Nancy Henson is the most famous dentist in Moody. When the patient gets scared, she does some of the old cheers from her MHS days. Byron Webb, the continental playboy millionaire, drove his newly renovated 1980 Spitfire. Rob Cook finally finished the seminary at New Orleans and is the minister at the Baptist Cathedral. Nancy Veasey, America's #1 contemporary gospel singer, is artist in residence at Moody Baptist University. Bobbie Phillips and Terri Hooten, the oldest Dallas Cowboy Cheerleaders, are home to lead the cheers. Their escorts are Wayne and Randy, of course. Roddie Slovensky, America's most famous Pollock, is now Chief of America's Diplomatic Corps. Rethell Davis is present and sporting one of his lates R & D originals. Connie Isbell and Denise Hamm, both competing for "Secretary of the Year," recently opened their own employment agencies. Ree Williamson is the court recorder for all the famous cases in St. Clair County. Ruth Joiner owns Moody's major clothing factory. Jo Ann Bierly is the lingerie supervisor. Tommy Reeder owns the largest garage in the South end of Moody, and Vick Nickles owns the rival one on the North end. Roger Wright is maintenance supervisor for a chain of space vehicle repair shops. Sherhonda Walker owns the major daily newspaper, the Moody Courier. Janet Pruett is the city manager for the town of Moody. Jill Webb, married and the mother of a baseball team, manages the local little league. Rhonda Sullivan is owner of a chain of Happiness Clinics where she teaches sad people how to be happy. Johnny Reed owns Moody Truck Stop with a bevy of beautiful waitresses. Brian Dixon, a famous geologist, came in from Oregon. He was originally in California before it slid into the ocean. Chuck Johnson, owner of the Smile Flower Shop has franchises in Brompton, Acmar, and White's Chapel. Tony owns the Moody Cycle Shop and Lisa is still his favorite blond. Cindy Hazelwood is MHS only female PE teacher. Mark Lowery and Roger Smith own their own cable-T.V. company and Patricia is still engaged to Mark. Bobbie Gruber owns the Curly Q Beauty Shop for animals with straight hair. Rob Bright owns radio station MHSW and is president of Homes for Down and Outers. Teresa Boyd is a famous trial lawyer. She got her experience as an eleventh grade class president. Mary Cosby, Donna Pinson, and Peggy Ramsey own the CPR Greenhouse. Lori Anders and Tammy Brasher, basketball players for the famous Moody Redheads. The senior sponsors, Mrs. Duncan and Ms. Huffstutler came too. Ms. D. was on a walking cane, but still saying, "Now Students," and Miss H. is still the prettiest Home Ec. teacher at MHS. And that's all in the future.

IN MEMORIAM
MR. HARRY K. EDEN



The 1981 Golden Crest is dedicated to the memory of Mr. Harry K. Eden, a former teacher of Moody High School. Many students can well remember 7th or 8th grade when Mr. Eden came to teach. He often said, "Through these portals pass the most well-informed students with the knowledge and the genious to rule tomorrow's world."

Mr. Eden was more than a teacher. He was an educator, a friend, a confidante. He taught us to know ourselves, make our time count, and numerous truths that in periods of reflection, we often remember. Mr. Eden passed away during the early fall of 1979. He will always be remembered by the students of MHS.

SGA

MHS reactivated its SGA in the fall of 1980 with Mr. Clarence Boshell as the sponsor. It is an organization representing the student body. Election speeches were heard by all of the student body. Then all of the student body voted on those officers who would represent them during the coming year.

The 1980 football season for Moody High was one of few disappointments and many surprising moments as the Blue Devils rolled to an 8 and 2 record. They won to next door rival Odenville in the first game played between the two high school teams. They lost a heart-breaker to TCTS and lost against Area Champions, Ohatchee. From then on, it was an easy trip to County Champs. The high point of the season was when they upset Munford, 7 to 0. The football team and fans should be proud of their record and also proud of their Seniors to whom these next pages are dedicated.

SENIORS: Stanley Brasher, Randy Box, Randy Fisher, Larry Faulkner, Warren Lovvorn.

Moody's record of 8 and 2 was not accomplished by the players alone. Moody's new head Coach Ron Lee from Springville, turned Moody into a complete high school team. He was assisted by Wes Simpson and Ken Minton.

Quarterbacks: Wayne Barker, Mickey Fulmer.

Ends & Receivers: Terry Goodwin, Kenny Armstrong, Lanny Jolly, Micheal Sharpe, Lee Parrish.

Backs: Randy Bell, Stanley Brasher, Chuck Barber, Lee Hosey, Ken Holt, Ken Dutton.

Tackles: Terry Isbell, Keith Lambert, Chris Strickland, Rodney Reid.

Guards: Micheal McLaughlin, Warrenn Lovvorn, Ronnie Isbell, Cameron Jordan, Lester Gable, Barry Lambert, Richard Tillery.

Mr. William D. Clark, Principal

This yearbook contains some of the most precious possessions of your life — Memories. Events, emotions, nd settings will be in your memory as long as you live. Your yearbook will flood your mind with those memories. s you have lived this year, you will have experienced a year such as no other in your life. People who were part that year may never be again, and if they are, they won't be in the same capacity as this year. This yearbook as frozen forever every emotion you experienced. You are to be complimented for having the foresight to cquire this yearbook.

As your principal, I hope it has been a very good year for you. I look forward to your future, and I know I will be watching to see what this year has done for you.

Jana,

You are a very sweet and pretty girl. I am glad that we have become such good friends. I'm especially glad that we have Algebra I together. Even though you have made better grades than me. No!! Maybe next year we will have some classes together. I wish you would have tried out for Cheerleading for next year. You would have been good. But since gymnastics means so much to you I understand. But next year please do try out!! You know you would be good. Anyway, have a great summer. I hope I see you sometime. (I know I prolly will.) Love Ya Lots,
